One More Victory

or Single Cub Defeat
Will Give Giants Flag.

The Giants have but ten more games to play and seven of them are with Brooklyn. The Cubs have but one more than the Giants and have but six to play. If they should drop a game the pennant will go to the Giants. If the Giants should win one more, the flag will be raised in the Polo Grounds whether the Cubs keep one or not. The Cubs have but one more game than the Giants. It is impossible for the Giants to do worse than the them, as there are only ten to play.
